

Small to Mid-Sized Farmer Food Safety Trainings

Hosted by Arkansas Farm to School

A three-level training course intended for small to mid-sized farmers. Extension Agents and farmers market managers are encouraged to attend.

After completing the three levels of training, producers will be eligible for funding to assist with the cost of a third-party food safety audit of one specialty crop.

Trainings will be a full day with coffee and lunch provided.

Level 2

July 17 – Little Rock
July 24 – Mountain Home

Topics include:

- Developing an on-farm food safety plan
- Getting ready for a GAP audit
- Farm to School market opportunities

To register, go to

<https://base.uams.edu/redcap/surveys/?s=XA3HXX3EJF>

Questions? Contact Jenna Rhodes (jennarhodes@uams.edu or 501-364-3360)

These trainings are sponsored by the Childhood Obesity Prevention Research Program at the Arkansas Children's Research Institute through funding provided by the Arkansas Agriculture Department Specialty Crop Block Grant Program at the U.S. Department of Agriculture Grant #15-SCBGP-AR0025. Additional support provided by the Wallace Center through the U.S. Department of Agriculture Farm to School Grant Program through grant #CN-FNS-TRN-16-AR-01. Their content is solely the responsibility of the facilitators and does not necessarily represent the official views of the AAD or USDA.

